Characters

Nate

Sixth-grade Renaissance Man Nate Wright is eleven years old, four-and-a-half feet tall, and the all-time record holder for detentions in school history. Equipped with only a #2 pencil and the unshakable belief that he is #1, Nate fights daily battles against overzealous teachers, undercooked cafeteria food and all-around conventionality.

Teddy

Teddy’s the third musketeer, but never a third wheel. He’s a fun-loving jokester who’s always ready for anything – even some of Nate’s most harebrained schemes.

Francis

He’s Nate’s best friend, and also his polar opposite. Francis is an honor roll student and certified neat freak. He’s levelheaded and understanding, which means that he often plays the role of Nate’s conscience.

Jenny

She’s been the apple of Nate’s eye since kindergarten, but Jenny finds Nate’s insistence that they’re destined to be together a little obnoxious.

Chad

He’s unassuming, sweet-natured, and easily confused, but he’s got a big heart and an appetite to match.

Gina

Abrasive, arrogant, and a first-class workaholic, Gina’s the ultimate teacher’s pet. She boasts of her own academic achievements and delights in Nate’s failures.

Mrs. Godfrey

Nate’s social studies teacher and archnemesis. Beneath Mrs. Godfrey’s harsh exterior is ... an even harsher interior.

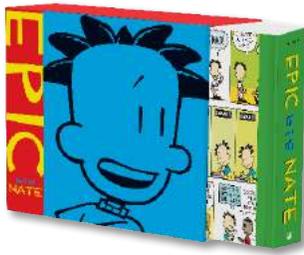

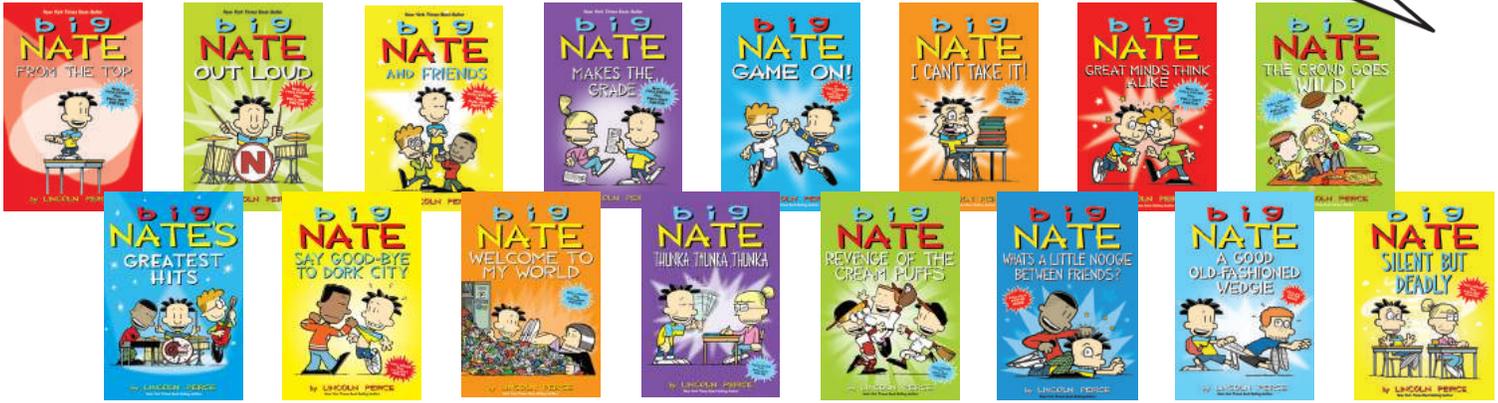

Mr. Rosa

P.S. 38’s longtime art teacher is overwhelmed on good days, and burned-out on bad days. He’s sometimes exasperated by Nate’s antics in the art studio, but he always manages to stay positive.
